

BROCKTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS
SCHOOL COMMITTEE POLICY

---

Because of the importance of insuring that the Brockton Public School Department is educating only those students who truly reside in the City of Brockton, the School Committee, as a matter of policy, will not regard a "Caregiver Authorization Affidavit" signed pursuant to G.L. chapter 201F as evidence of where a student resides. If a student is living in Brockton with a non-parent who has established legal guardianship through the Probate Court, however, such legal guardianship will, along with other factors, be regarded as evidence of residency.

Attempting to enroll a child who does not actually reside in Brockton constitutes fraud, and, consistent with G.L. chapter 76, section 5, any person who participates in or assists in said fraud may be required to remit full restitution to the City of Brockton.
